PARADISE COAST SPORTS COMPLEX

The Paradise Coast Sports Complex will become one of the premier sports and special events destinations in the United States. The park currently features four synthetic turf rectangle fields, and will ultimately grow to 20 full-size fields (combination of rectangle and diamonds) and a 3,500-seat stadium. The complex will also include The Factory and The Cove.

The Stadium will be the premier sports and special events venue in southwest Florida. The 3,500-seat stadium includes a full video board, synthetic turf field, multiple party suites and concessions. An ideal venue for championship sporting events, concerts and more.

The Factory fitness pavilion is one of many features at Paradise Coast Sports Complex geared toward the local community. Located next to The Great Lawn, The Factory consists of the MoveStrong workout area, National Fitness Court, Open Air Classroom, Open Air Weight Room and Lake Trail.

The Cove is the new social scene of Collier County with great food, cold drinks and a slew of family entertainment events. The Cove has something for everyone. Whether you are in town as part of a tournament or live in the area.
