

Do you travel abroad for your profession?

Do you serve clients or customers who might be more comfortable if you were able to communicate in their native language?

While your job demands may not require fluency in multiple languages, perhaps some recognition of key phrases and conversation starters would be helpful?

Maybe you are being sent abroad for your profession and would like some basic “getting around” phrases.

The Half Hollow Hills Community Library offers two different digital learning tools. Both Mango Languages and Pronunciator offer various classes, courses, and learning strategies for those wishing to become more adept at any number of languages. For the business professional looking to pick up basic phrases, as well as those looking for a more in-depth whole language approach, these platforms would prove extremely helpful. Simply click on the images above to learn more!

As always, for any questions regarding the many diverse services we offer, contact the Half Hollow Hills Community Library.
