Tickets and Registration (See attached form or our website ctjmb.org)

Tickets are not transferable. For security please bring ticket and ID to all services. Children under age 18 are not required to have a ticket.

Members will have tickets mailed to them the week prior to Rosh Hashanah

The Community Family Service at CTJ is free to the public. This service is open to both members and non-members free of charge. It is specifically geared toward families with children ages 7 and under.

Babysitting will be available at AMPH on Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. Sign up necessary.

Become a member

High Holy Days are a great opportunity to join our vibrant and joyous community. To receive membership information and forms, you can call the CTJ office at 310-546-3667 or fill out forms online at ctjmb.org

Financial assistance

We want you to attend High Holy Day services with us, and believe that financial constraints should not prevent anybody from worshiping. If you require financial assistance, please contact the CTJ office at 310-546-3667 for a respectful and confidential discussion.

Reciprocity Members of other synagogues can receive a reciprocal ticket. If you are a member of a synagogue located more than 25 miles from CTJ, request a letter, email, or fax from your synagogue confirming your affiliation in good standing. We will be pleased to send you tickets to our services at no charge.
