

Red Light, Green Light Overview

Red Light: This space is not safe to play in at all

Yellow Light: You need an adult with you, you might not always be able to play in this space, you need to tell the adult(s) who brought you where you are

Green Light: This space is safe to play

Youth Room: Yellow

- If Youth Group is happening, or the door is closed, please do not play in this area.
- If there isn't anything going on and the door is open, you are welcome to play or sit in here as long as you are respectful of the space. This room is for the older kids in our parish, and they are very good at sharing, but if they are using it, you should ask if you can join them first, just like they will ask you if they want to use the Sunday School rooms.

Kitchen area/Boiler Room: Red

- This area contains a lot of appliances, equipment, and tools used for cooking and maintenance of the building. These places are not safe to play or explore.

Lower Hall: Green

- This is a safe area to play with friends after church. Please be respectful and careful of other people using the space too.
- Please do not run in the area where people are sitting during Hospitality Hour.

Sunday School Rooms: Green

- If the doors are open, you are welcome to play or hang out in the Sunday School Rooms. Please be respectful of the supplies and space.
- Please do not touch the TV in the 2nd-5th grade room if it is in there.

Daycare Hallway Area: Yellow

- This is a safe place to play but it is also shared space with our daycare friends. If you decide to play here, please make sure an adult can see you and be respectful of the daycare things.

Staircases: Red

- The stairs are not a safe place to play. Please walk up and down the stairs.

Lounge: Red

- The lounge is used for meetings after church, so we don't want to interrupt the meetings.

Offices/Office wing Hallway: Red

- Most times the office doors will be closed, but even if a door is open, that is someone's private space. If you need to talk to Rev. Lydia or Amma Leslie you can come to our offices to see if we're there, but this area isn't for play.

Great Hall: Yellow

- The Great Hall is a safe space to play; however, you need to have an adult with you and you need to tell the adult(s) who brought you where you are.

Chapel: Red

- If you need a quiet space, you are welcome to come here to the Chapel. This is not a good place to play though because people come here to pray after church. We want to be respectful of them. You are always welcome to use it to pray or have quiet time as long as the adult(s) who brought you know where you are.

Acolyte Space/Tower Rooms: Red

- This space has stairs and items that we use for worship. Please do not play in this area.

Church: Yellow

- If worship is over and you want to play here that is okay. Please make sure that no one is using the space for prayer or quiet time, that the adult(s) who brought you know where you are, and that you have an adult with you. Please also be respectful of anything that is left out in the pews, on the altar, piano, etc.

Prayground: Green

- When using the Prayground during worship, please keep your voice to a whisper.
- If there are children who are younger than you, please make space for them.
- See if you can find some ways to participate in worship while you are there.

Elevator: Red (unless using for accessibility purposes)

- The elevator is here to make sure everyone can use all the spaces of the building easily. Please do not play with or in the elevator.

Outside/Playground: Yellow

- You are welcome to play outside as long as you have an adult with you and the adult(s) who brought you know where you are.
