

An Invitation

Beloved Community Initiative's Underground Railroad Pilgrimage 2026

In the mid-1800s Iowa, a free state, experienced effects from systemic slavery practiced in the southern states, including Missouri. One of these effects was enslaved people attempting to make their way to freedom using routes through SE Iowa leading to northern cities and Canada. Networks of people dedicated to helping the freedom seekers formed, and some of these networks came to be called the “underground railroad”.

A pilgrimage is different than a tour.

“Pilgrimage is a spiritual exercise, an act of devotion to find a source of healing, or even to perform a penance. Always, it is a journey of risk and renewal. For a journey without challenge has no meaning; one without purpose has no soul.” -Phil Cousineau

This pilgrimage will explore circumstances and issues associated with the Underground Railroad and visit three sites on the “Network to Freedom”. Stories can help give a clearer picture of the practice of enslavement then; as well as now. While not an easy topic, one begins to appreciate the courage and commitment of the freedom seekers and abolitionists in Iowa's early history. We will share deep conversations and understandings as we open ourselves to Spirit, to the stories, and to the impact on our lives today.
