Episcopal Diocese of Nebraska

2025 EfM EVENT

Saturday, Feb. 15, 2025
9am-12pm CT / 8-11am MT

St. Augustine's Episcopal Church
285 S 208th St, Elkhorn, NE 68022
In-Person & Online Via Zoom

CARING FOR A LOVED ONE WITH MEMORY LOSS

Team Building & Financial Planning

Listen to three short presentations from our panelists, along with personal stories of family members. There will be two breakout sessions and time for questions at the end.

All are welcome! Clergy or lay, affiliated with the Episcopal Church or not, this event will provide information to all those called to caregiving for a loved one.

$25 SUGGESTED DONATION to The Benedictine Way (thebenedictineway.org) or The Association for Frontotemporal Degeneration (theaftd.org)

REGISTER HERE

https://bit.ly/2025EfMEvent

Questions about this event or EfM?
Contact Dr. Sandra Squires, DioNeb EfM Coordinator: sandra.k.squires76@gmail.com. Reference "EfM Event."

Sponsored by Education for Ministry, Daughters of the King, and Women's Ministries in the Diocese of Nebraska.

PANELISTS

The Rev. Lisa Aguilar: Episcopal priest and Bishop Society Curate at St. Augustine of Canterbury, Elkhorn. She served as chaplain at the Nebraska Medical Center for 15 years and was ordained to the priesthood in 2022. She will speak on how to build a team to provide spiritual care, how to find support resources, and moderate the panel.

Dr. Daniel Murman: Professor in the Department of Neurological Sciences specializing in Memory Disorders at the University of Nebraska Medical Center in Omaha. He will provide a medical explanation of memory disorders, specifically on Frontotemporal Dementia (FTD) and its implications for behavior changes.

David Grooters: Attorney and CPA at Pappajohn Law Firm in Mason City, IA. He will speak about protecting financial assets while providing for long term care for a loved one.

Additional panelists: Deb Schrager, an AFTD trainer and facilitator, and Fr. Bob Kem. Both have a loved one with frontotemporal lobe dementia.