

The Clergy Abuse Crisis and Homosexuality: The Problem of Scapegoating

7:00 PM Tuesday
February 26, 2019

The Paulist Center
5 Park Street
Boston, MA

Sponsored by the Paulist Center LGBTQ Group and the Paulist Center Adult Education Committee

Andrew Sullivan is a writer-at-large for New York Magazine. Former editor of The New Republic, 1991 - 1996, contributor to The New York Times Magazine, 1996 - 2005, Washington columnist for the Sunday Times (of London), 1993 - 2015, founding editor of The Dish, 2000 - 2015, Sullivan is the author of three books, "Virtually Normal," "Love Undetectable," and "The Conservative Soul." A pioneer of blogging, Sullivan is writing a book on Christianity.

Paulist Center Boston

PaulistCenter.org
617-742-4460
info@paulistcenter.org
Suggested Donation of $10