

FRIENDLY WITNESS: THE SPIRITUAL GROUND OF QUAKER SOCIAL ACTION

A hybrid conference exploring what the contemplative religious tradition of Quakerism has to say about social action.

Wednesday, April 19, 2023

4 PM - 9 PM (ET) | Zoom and Onsite | Free and open to all

Held on Zoom, at Boston University
School of Theology
and Beacon Hill
Friends House

Plenary Presentation (4 PM ET): An Ever-Branching River: The Beautiful Watersheds of Quaker Theology

Dr. Christy Randazzo

Held at Boston University School of Theology
745 Commonwealth Avenue, Boston, MA, Room 325

Panel 1 | 7 - 8 PM Schism, Sanctuary, & Transformation

Held at Beacon Hill Friends House
8 Chestnut St., Boston, MA 02108

Panel 2 | 8 - 9 PM Ecotheology, Social Action, & Imagination

Held at Beacon Hill Friends House
8 Chestnut St., Boston, MA 02108

Presentations include:

- "Mystics and Evangelicals: The Theological Backstory to Recent Schisms in Quaker Churches"
- "James A. Corbett, Quaker Spirituality, and the Sanctuary Movement"
- "Quakers and Eco-spirituality"
- "Rufus Jones, Howard Thurman, and the Sin of Segregation"

School of Theology

BEACON HILL
FRIENDS HOUSE

Cooperative Metropolitan Ministries

Faiths Unitting in Social Action Since 1966

