Led by Chris Carlough, Director of Education for SMART, the four-day training offers theoretical knowledge and the practice of basic skills necessary for crisis intervention. This is an important program for our members and we are making it as affordable as possible so that all Locals can attend. The core components that comprise MAP training are:

- Confidentiality, Communication
- Interpersonal Skills
- Introspection of Oneself
- Assessment of Crisis
- Ethical Responsibility
- Relapse and Follow-up
- Navigating through Health Care Plans
