

Apology to Alexis “Lexi” Boyd from Lurgan Elementary

Lexi is the student standout at Lurgan Elementary; she was inadvertently left out of the calendar. We have apologized to her and to her family. Here is Lexi's story:

"Lexi was selected because she is one of the most kind and caring students we have the privilege of working with at Lurgan," said Principal Paul Swope. "All of her classmates, as well as other Lurgan students, look to Lexi when they need someone to talk to," said Paul Swope, principal.

When asked how she felt about being named the Student Standout, Lexi said, "Surprised, excited, and proud!"

She has always loved school and, in fact, she thinks she may want to be a teacher when she grows up.

"I have a white board at home and I play school with my stuffed animals all the time," Lexi said. "My mom is active in our school PTO and I like to stay after school when she is here and help the teachers."

"Lexi is always willing to help her teachers with extra assignments or duties," Principal Swope added. "To sum it up, Lexi's just an all-around great kid and the type of student that we proudly want to showcase as the face of Lurgan!"

In addition to really enjoying school – especially reading and writing, Lexi loves living in the country because her family is able to have a lot of animals. She loves to play soccer, swim and ride her bike. But her big brown eyes really light up when she describes how much she loves Disney World. Splash Mountain is her favorite!
