Persons available for counseling and/or spiritual direction

The following persons are recommended for individual counseling or spiritual direction sessions. Grant recipients will be encouraged to choose and reach out to one of these providers directly to schedule sessions. These providers will bill ACC directly for sessions.

Anne Kaufman Weaver weaves several streams into pastoral care. She earned a Master of Social Work from Marywood College and values the strengths-based approach prevalent in the field. Later she entered Coach training through Coach U and learned the value of positive psychology for reaching desired changes. While earning her Master of Divinity at Eastern Mennonite Seminary she took four units of Clinical Pastoral Education and studied Bowen Family Systems. She serves as a chaplain at Landis Homes Retirement Community and has entered the Clinical Pastoral Educator certification process.

Jason Kuniholm brings a variety of pastoral care experiences into his work with other ministers. Jason earned his M.Div from Palmer Seminary and completed his D.Min in marriage and family there as well. He has served in several interim and long-term pastoral roles, served as Bishop of several LMC districts, taught at Eastern Mennonite University and Seminary, and continues to provide spiritual direction and clergy coaching. Jason remains interested in teaching and engaging in spiritual formation, healthy pastorates, clergy families, systems theory, and healthy community-building.

Carolyn Yoder is a Licensed Professional Counselor and trainer. She earned her Masters in Counseling Psychology and holds a variety of training credentials including Emotional Freedom Technique (EFT) and Eye movement desensitization and reprocessing (EMDR). She is also a Master Trainer for Strategies for Trauma Awareness and Resilience (STAR) and a Compassion Fatigue Educator with Green Cross Academy. Carolyn employs the theories, techniques, and intuition developed over 25 plus years of working with trauma and challenging life situations.

Option 4

Continue with a counselor/spiritual director with whom you are already in relationship. Please include this individual's name and per-session cost (up to $100) on page one. In this situation, the provider may bill ACC directly or a pastor or chaplain may submit receipts to the ACC office for reimbursement.

Invoices or receipts may be emailed to office@atlanticcoastconference.net or mailed to: Atlantic Coast Conference, 2257 Old Philadelphia Pike, Lancaster, PA 17602
