Westfield Bank: Financing Home Ownership Since 1853

Westfield Bank has closed on thousands of mortgages in its 168-year history, but each one is still special to the Residential Lending Team.

“Helping a customer buy, build, or refinance a home never gets old,” says Matthew Manganelli, Vice President and Retail Lending Sales Manager. “It’s an emotional experience because homes are where memories are made.”

“Our mortgage loan officers are with you from pre-qualification to closing and our underwriting team is super-fast,” says Manganelli. “Our goal is to turn houses into homes as quickly as we can.”

In addition to a wide array of mortgage products, the Bank provides customers with multiple ways to apply.

“You can apply online, apply in person, or start online and finish in person. No matter which option you choose, you’ll always have a mortgage loan officer to talk to,” says Manganelli.

Westfield Bank also services their mortgages, so customers have a local contact should they need assistance.

“It’s nice to be able to pick up the phone and know you’re talking to someone local,” says Manganelli. As the saying goes, ‘home is where the heart is.’ We couldn’t agree more.”
