

Tournament FAQS

What charities is this event supporting?

1. The Hands United Foundation Inc.
2. The Glenn Burnett Scholarship Fund
3. The Russell Scholarship

Why we need your help!

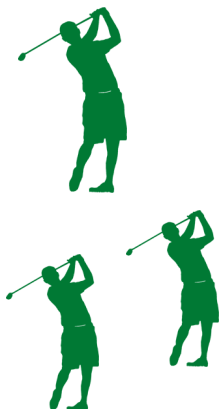

By supporting the GPCA golf tournament you are supporting your community. The money raised at this event will help save many lives through the American Red Cross. In addition the proceeds also assist in sending children of pest control professionals to college through the Glenn Burnett Scholarship Fund and the Russell Scholarship which can be awarded to a student at The University of Georgia who is enrolled in Entomology. We appreciate your generosity!

What are the benefits of Sponsorship?

- Excellent visibility in our industry magazine, The PROFILE
- Exposure on all GPCA social media platforms and the newly updated: www.gpca.org

What to Expect!!

- East Lake foursome being auctioned
- Currently still soliciting sponsorships for additional prizes
- Chef-prepared lunch after golf, snacks and cold drinks throughout round

About Us

GPCA has encouraged a spirit of community involvement and partnered with many great charities throughout its 68 year history. The Hands United Foundation is a nonprofit organization with a goal of extending their reach of support across generations. The foundation was created to relieve hardship among those in the pest management industry. Your contributions directly benefit members of the GPCA and Georgia Pest Control Industry families during life changing events.

Mission

Giving Hope When Life Happens

A sudden death or major illness is something we are never fully prepared to face. GPCA members are often the single income source for their families and during a time of tragedy our members take care of each other. The Hands United Foundation began with the GPCA Leadership Class of 2017. It can only continue with your help.

What Kind of Help is Available:

When a catastrophic event occurs, families often do not have sufficient resources to provide basic needs. Accommodations, travel costs, food and clothing are just a few examples. Every application is considered by the Hands United Board of Directors. Your contributions will make a difference
