"HOW DO YOU MAKE A UNIT PRAYER BOOK?

The unit chaplain does not make a unit prayer book alone. The publication is a collection of prayers, devotional thoughts, and poems that mean something special to the unit members. The chaplain and members may write their own prayers or devotional thoughts for the book. All members should be asked to give the unit chaplain something for the prayer book. The chaplain may want to type the material she receives. She may want to add pictures that go along with the prayer, devotional thought, or poem. A great resource for the prayer book is a church bulletin. Many churches use bulletins that have a picture on the cover with a devotional thought or bible verse. Ask unit members to save these for you. Making a prayer book is a very delightful job. You will likely receive beautiful prayers, devotional thoughts, and poems from many different people. Be sure to enjoy every minute of it."

American Legion Auxiliary Chaplains Manual pg. 3

"So encourage each other and build each other up, just as you are already doing."
(1 Thessalonians 5:11)

Dear God,
Help me to remember that others are needed, wanted and appreciated. Give me the words to encourage and build members up whenever I can.
In your name I pray. Amen

Sonia Wiley
Department of KS Chaplain