COUGAR PUMPS IS NOW AN AVETTA MEMBER

We are pleased to announce that we are now a member of Avetta.

Being an Avetta member demonstrates our commitment to health, safety, compliance and operational excellence across the supply chain and reflects our dedication to maintaining safe working practices across all areas of our operations, from on-site engineering to customer service delivery.

At a time when safety, sustainability, and compliance matter more than ever, being part of the Avetta community shows that our business is serious about maintaining high standards and delivering with confidence.

This latest development represents another step forward in our growth and reinforces our reputation as a dependable and responsible business within the pump sector.
