What's New

Work has begun on a new 15-story tower at Disney's Coronado Springs Resorts at Walt Disney World Resort in Lake Buena Vista, FL that will bring an additional 500 rooms with suites and concierge level services. The new tower, overlooking, Lago Dorado, the resort's centerpiece lake, will offer a rooftop dining experience with panoramic views of popular night-time fireworks from nearby Walt Disney World theme parks.

Disney's Caribbean Beach will be undergoing a large renovation to the Centertown area of the resort. As a result, all of the restaurants will be closing during this renovation. "Grab-and-go" locations will be set up at the "island markets" in the Aruba, Jamaica, and Martinique buildings. Guests staying at Caribbean Beach during this refurbishment will receive a $75 Disney Gift Card per room for each night of their stay at check in (this is more than the amount stated above). The gift cards can be used at participating food and merchandise locations at Walt Disney World.

Fairytale Journey by Tim Brooks – Food Five

EPCOT Dining Locations

Here are my top five places to grab something to eat in EPCOT's World Showcase

Number 5: Chefs de France – quality French cuisine at reasonable prices – restaurant can seem a bit loud when crowded

Number 4: Rose and Crown Pub – authentic food from the British Isles – like Chefs de France can be a bit loud – great place to get a night-time restaurant to watch Illuminations from the restaurant's viewing location

Number 3: Le Hacienda de San Angel – not be confused with San Angel Inn. San Angel Inn is inside the Mexico pavilion building. Le Hacienda de San Angel is on the water. Very open feel. Great menu. For the over 21 set, excellent tequila selection

Number 2: Le Cellier – World Showcase's smallest table service location which makes getting a reservation difficult to get – some of the best steak on Disney property – large wine list from some of Canada's best wineries

Number 1: Via Napoli – hands down the best pizza on Disney property – very open-air feel – great pasta and desserts too – one of the best single table credit restaurants on the Disney Dining Plan
