Greetings, fellow United Church of Christ musician!

Introduction to UCCMA

As the new President of the United Church of Christ Musicians Association (UCCMA), I am reaching out to introduce you to our organization and invite you to be a part of it. I have served as the Music Director at St. Paul's UCC in Mechanicsburg, PA for nearly 45 years and have been involved with the UCCMA for over a decade.

The Challenge of Church Music Ministry

Many of us are familiar with the challenges of serving our congregations week after week, often feeling isolated and working with limited resources. It is not easy to find others who understand the unique demands of our work. The UCCMA offers a supportive network and rich resources.

Membership Benefits

- Receive our professional digital journal, Worship, Music, and Ministry, which is sent to you and available online, providing a wealth of resources, ideas, and repertoire.
- Stay informed with our electronic UCC Musicians News and other email communications
- Participate in our Saturday Sharing webinars, focusing on current topics in church music.
- Access our online directory of members to connect and network with colleagues
- Utilize our job placement listing and guidance service to explore new opportunities.
- Attend our biennial national Summer Conference. Our next conference is scheduled for July 8-11, 2026, at First Community Church in Columbus, OH.
- Enjoy member discounts on conference registrations.
- Be part of a supportive environment community to connect and share resources.

The UCCMA Community

UCCMA has been in existence for over 30 years. My own experience attending the UCCMA Summer Conference in Chicago in 2015 was transformative; I found not only the benefits listed above, but also a welcoming group of UCC musicians who quickly became like family. The spirit of caring and sharing in this community has been invaluable.

How to Join

Please check out https://uccma.wildapricot.org/join-us. Membership options are available including a complimentary 90-day membership. I invite you to join the UCCMA family!
