

Leadership Academy 2020 Sacramento August 31 - September 3, 2020

Are you a New Dean, Program Manager or Faculty? Are you responsible for coordinating, managing or being part of an effective team in the community college setting? Are you an Administrative Assistant who is ready to be a leader?

"I define a leader as anyone who takes responsibility for finding the potential in people and processes, and who has the courage to develop that potential." — Brené Brown, Dare to Lead

Engage with leadership speakers, technical sessions, and networking opportunities. Participating in CCCAOE's Leadership Academy 2020 - Sacramento will provide you with the advanced skills of leading. The importance of joining together during this week to add to our knowledge and understanding of ways to increase the success of our students cannot be underestimated.

CCCAOE Leadership Academy 2020 will support the mission of CCCAOE through building the capacity of emerging and experienced leaders by providing Leadership for Occupational Education and Economic Development Professionals

Level 1 Leadership Academy - Monday, August 31 to Thursday, September 3, 2020

Builds the core knowledge, skills, and networking essential to CTE and EWD professionals. The research is clear. Leadership is not about personality; it's about behavior. What are those behaviors, and how does one learn to embody them? The experiential focus of this academy will give you practical and personal knowledge of leadership soft skills.

Mike Walsh: The Leadership Challenge

A respected leader, coach, and facilitator, Mike has a passion for creating a structure of support for organizations that inspires individuals to connect their skills and talents in a meaningful way that leads to self-motivation.

His ability for seamlessly integrating the goals of the individual with the desired outcomes of the team as a whole – leaving no one and nothing behind - is what has made him one of the most impactful results-producing facilitators in education administration, youth development, and corporate development for over 20 years.

Mike's approach to work empowers people of all ages and walks of life, from high school students to senior corporate executives and veteran educators, to produce the tangible results that satisfy the human desire to make a difference in the world through their work.

Level 2 Leadership Academy: Monday, August 31 to Wednesday, September 2, 2020

Enhance your voice as a leader to leverage proven behaviors and techniques to establish your own communication style and authentic leadership voice for engaging, inspiring, and motivating others in CTE and EWD efforts. Leadership is less about authority and more about influence. How does one use his or her influence to change an entire system? Level Two experiential workshop explores what it takes to Master Leadership so that your influence, no matter your hierachal level, can be used to leverage meaningful change in the community college system.

Leadership Facilitator - Mickey Porter

Mickey brings over 30 years of site, district and county-level leadership experience in education to the work of DtL. She is a certified DTL facilitator, and more importantly, an experienced leader, facilitator, coach who will weave what we need in education into the DtL concepts. Mickey brings humor, authenticity and a deep commitment to the tenets of DtL to this training and all that she does.

About The Dare To Lead Program

Based on the research of Dr. Brené Brown, Dare to Lead™ is an empirically based courage-building program designed to be facilitated by organizational development professionals.

Brené is a research professor at the University of Houston where she holds the Huffington Foundation – Brené Brown Endowed Chair at The Graduate College of Social Work. Brené is also a visiting professor in management at The University of Texas at Austin McCombs School of Business. She has spent the past two decades studying courage, vulnerability, shame, and empathy and is the author of five #1 New York Times bestsellers: The Gifts of Imperfection, Daring Greatly, Rising Strong, Braving the Wilderness, and her latest book, Dare to Lead, which is the culmination of a seven-year study on courage and leadership.

The most significant finding from Brené's latest research is that courage is a collection of four skill sets that are teachable, measurable, and observable. The Dare to Lead™ program focuses on developing these courage-building skills through workshops, trainings, and coaching to help individuals, teams, and organizations move from armored leadership to daring leadership.
