

THE ROAD TO RACIAL JUSTICE

Weekly Journal

Notes for Consideration and Discussion

Date
Weekly Topic

Notes for Consideration and Discussion

Carry-Over Notes for Next Week

Weekly Efficacy Check-Up

Date
Efficacy	When thinking of efficacy, think of about how you would like to grow with any of the weekly topics and the effectiveness of your grow, i.e. are you effective in affecting change in your personal and/or professional life from week to week, as a result of participating in these weekly conversations? Where were you in your biases and objectivity before the conversation, and where are you now?
What was your position on the topic before joining these weekly conversations?
Where have you experienced areas of growth after joining these weekly conversations?
Where would you like to experience areas of growth?
How have participating in these weekly conversations impacted your growth?

Weekly Call-To-Action

Date
Focus	Each week, all panelists and participants will receive “call-to-action” menu of action items to take forth into the following weeks and months to come to begin affecting change in their respective journey on The Road to Restorative Racial Justice.
Call-to-Action:
Think about why you have selected to take ownership in this particular call-to-action item?
Journal your experience with taking on the call-to-action item(s) and what challenges you have encounter, and how you manage to get on the other side of the challenge(s)?
Journal any experiences of efficacy that you would like to share during the weekly conversation.	