

Celebrating Sustainability 2017

More than 35 campus partners gather to inspire, empower, and engage the campus community in conservation and sustainability efforts. The event includes a sustainable lunch, courtesy of Residential and Dining Enterprises, and will feature fun activities, displays of student artwork, and campus entertainment, including the a Capella group Talisman. This year's event will showcase all of those working to advance sustainability at Stanford, and highlight the personal actions we can take to reduce our environmental impact and contribute to this flourishing culture at Stanford.

WHEN: 11am-1pm, Thursday April 20

WHERE: Science & Engineering Quad

Shuttle buses from Porter Drive will be available starting at 11am

The deadline to nominate individuals for the inaugural Sustainable Stanford Awards has been extended to April 5, 2017. Submit your nomination to recognize champions who have been instrumental in advancing sustainability on campus.

Open to all full-time students, staff, and faculty, the awards formally acknowledge those who have had a significant impact on the programs and processes that reduce the university footprint, engage the campus community, and enhance the core value of sustainability in daily actions. The awards will be presented at Celebrating Sustainability 2017. The awards help to emphasize the subtle but transformative nature of innovation in individual action.
