

Coming Up @ Covenant

Wednesday Noon Potluck

Wednesday, March 1 & April 5 12:00pm

You are invited to good ol' fashioned potluck! This mid-week gathering will give us an opportunity to connect and catch up. Feel free to cook up a storm at home, pick up something at your favorite grocery store, or favorite restaurant for a carry-out dish to share. Beverages, plates, and utensils will be provided. Feel free to bring a friend as we enjoy a time of good food and warm fellowship! These potlucks are on the 1st Wednesdays of the month.

Baked Potato Bar

Wednesday, March 1, 5:30pm

Ash Wednesday's FREE Baked Potato Bar was postponed until Wednesday, March 1. Come one, come all! The potatoes will be hot and the toppings will be yummy. Join us in Bradfield Hall at 5:30pm. Come for the fellowship and then stay for the 6:30pm Taizé service. All are welcome and bring a friend! No reservation needed.

Lenten Taizé Worship

Wednesdays, March 1, 8, 15, 22, 29, 6:30pm

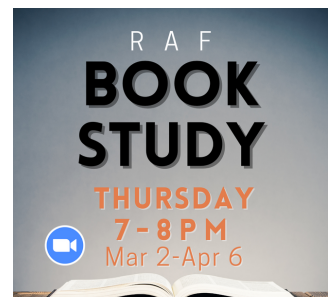

Join us for a service of scripture, music and prayer. These 30-minute services will alternate between Covenant (Mar 1, 15, 29) and Westminster Presbyterian (Mar 8, 22). Brother Roger Schultz (1915-2005), a Swiss reformed theologian (along with seven other Protestant brothers), committed to a life of prayer, simplicity, and service - forming the Taizé community in eastern France. Today, the music of Taizé has found a place in the hymnody of many congregations, including the Presbyterian Church USA (PCUSA).

RAF Virtual Book Study: The Sum of Us

Thursdays 7:00pm, March 2-April 6

Racists Anonymous Fellowship has a new book study beginning Thursday, March 2 via Zoom on the book The Sum of Us by Heather McGhee. This thoughtful book discusses how racism has a cost for everyone, and emphasizes the importance of multiracial solidarity. If you are interested in joining and/or getting the Zoom link, please contact Jennifer Morgan or the church office.

Clementines for Glenn Stephens

Sunday, March 5

We are collecting clementines in March! The Mission Committee collects fresh fruit for Glenn Stephens Elementary School so every student has a healthy snack. If you would like to join in this fruit collection, please bring a bag (or two) of clementines to the gathering space at church on March 5. Thank you!
