

Adult Education

Adult Education resumes in September

Adult Education at Covenant takes a break for the summer, but we try and keep the Covenant family in the loop with any other Christian/Adult Education opportunities. See below for such opportunities! Check covenantmadison.org/adult-ed-classes for recordings of classes you missed or want to re-watch!

Sunday Scripture Study

Sundays, 8:45-9:20am

Sunday Scripture Study is back! Beginning Sunday, June 4, join a small group in the Lounge every Sunday from 8:45-9:20am before 9:30 worship to discuss the Sunday scripture text. With Adult Education taking a hiatus this summer, this is a great way to stay engaged in Christian education!

RAF Book Study (Virtual)

Thursdays 7-8pm, July 20-Aug 17

Racist Anonymous Fellowship will be sponsoring another Book Study! The book we will be discussing is "What Kind of Christianity: A History of Slavery and Anti-Black Racism in the Presbyterian Church" by William Woo. It is a book that can lead us to understand that, in order to promote racial justice, we need first to learn how much racial injustice has been a part of the denomination's history and identity. The book is available through Amazon, Kindle and the PCUSA website. Contact Jennifer Morgan (jbmorgan@me.com) to be added to the mailing list and receive the meeting link.

Visit covenantmadison.org/adult for more information about Adult Education at Covenant.

Behind the Scenes

It takes many hands to do the work that keeps Covenant running smoothly, and many of those tasks happen behind the scenes.

Thank You to:

- our Vacation Bible Camp volunteers
- those who care for the beautiful flowers and landscaping at Covenant
- those who write cards to all who are on our weekly prayer list

If you would like to take part in one of these ministries, please contact the church office at info@covenantmadison.org.
