on the journey together

NOVEMBER 2023

Proud to Be Presbyterian - Especially in November! A letter from Pastor Charlie

I am proud to be a Presbyterian. This month at Covenant we have two special opportunities to celebrate our Presbyterianism!

On Tuesday, November 14, we are hosting a meeting of John Knox Presbytery (jknox.org). Pastors and elders from the 55 churches will be at Covenant most of the day, for worship and business of the church. JKP has churches throughout south central and western Wisconsin, along with northeast Iowa and southeast Minnesota. We come together for four meetings per year and we support each other, as a "community of communities."

We need volunteer help for this day. If you can help, please contact the church office or Laurie Jones. Tasks include: Greeter, coffee setup, lunch help. Contact the office if you can help!

We offered to host this meeting on relatively short notice, after another site had to cancel. Let's show our JKP colleagues some warm Covenant hospitality!

On Saturday, November 18, Rev. Megan Berry is being installed as our Associate Pastor. This special worship service includes liturgy of installation, a charge to Megan, and a charge to us as a congregation. We will have festive music including children's choir, the handbell choir, and the chancel choir! A reception will follow.

I love Covenant Presbyterian Church, and I'm glad that we are part of a "community of communities" in John Knox Presbytery and part of the Presbyterian Church USA (pcusa.org). We are Christ's body—one body with many parts, sharing God's love in the world.

On the journey together,
Charlie
