"Whose Planet is it Anyways? Stewardship Challenges for a Crowded World" - John Seager
World population has more than tripled since the middle of the 20th century. By removing the barriers that now prevent women and girls from achieving their own chosen destinies, we can foster a better, safer, less-crowded future for people and for our living planet. John Seager is the President of Population Connection - America's leading grassroots population organization. He has been a guest lecturer at more than 80 colleges and spoken to numerous environmental, religious, and community groups across the U.S. on the costs of rapid population growth. Sunday, April 23 & 30
"Revelation" - John Strikwerda
Adult Education on April 16 and 23 will delve into the Book of Revelation, the last book in the Bible. You are encouraged to read it beforehand. Approach the book as though it were an action movie with weak plot but awesome special effects. Experience it. Do not try to figure it out. It is as violent as any action movie ever made. Not suitable for all audiences. Read more at covenantmadison.org/adult-ed-classes.

All classes meet Sundays at 10:00am in Bradfield Hall and on Zoom at us02web.zoom.us/j/89540028471. Visit covenantmadison.org/adult for more information about Adult Education at Covenant.

Guatemala Scholarships Update

Gracias from Santo Domingo, Guatemala!

Greetings and many blessings to every member of the Covenant Presbyterian Church, Madison... I really appreciate the support. I inform you that thanks to God and your good work, the Monte Hebron Church has received the contribution for scholarships for 2023. God bless you, hugs in Christ. -Pastora Flor de Maria Alvarez

This was Pastora Flor's response to Covenant's scholarship money for the 47 students from Monte Hebron Presbyterian Church in Santo Domingo. Covenant was able to provide the entire 129,364 Quetzals requested for schlolarships ($16,670) as well as a 5% donation ($835) to the Presbytery of Suchitepequez for their help in processing the funds. This was made possible by your support of the Guatemala Auction in December 2022 and the $4000 in the Covenant mission budget. Many thanks to all who donated items, worked on the auction committee, bought items, and donated to Covenant's operating budget. It takes a village . . . and a generous church.
