

VIRTUAL 2020

GUATEMALA MISSION AUCTION

Covenant's annual auction will benefit Guatemala scholarship needs and the COVID relief fund. Artists, bakers, card makers, fly fish tyers, knitters, quilters, sewers and woodworkers ... go for it! Think creatively about how you can help by donating

ITEMS WITH A VALUE OF $20 OR MORE.

DID YOU KNOW?

The national bird of Guatemala is the resplendent quetzal. Considered sacred by the ancient Maya, it boasts gorgeous, colorful plumage and symbolizes liberty.

DONATIONS
ACCEPTED
OCT. 4-11

BIDDING
ONLINE
OCT. 18-25

IDEAS

- Renting your vacation home for a weekend getaway
- Writing a letter to a child once per month for 6 months
- Baking cookies once per month for 3 months, or fresh bread and jam, a pie, etc.
- Dog walking / pet sitting
- Yard work / shoveling snow
- Running errands, such as grocery pick-up
- Donating gift cards; new or used jewelry; art and decorative pieces; a gift box for a specific age; a birthday party in a box
- Could you teach a Zoom class on something you do well?
- Could you deliver materials for a craft project and then demonstrate it online?
- Could you present an hour of online tutoring? Lend some technical Support?
- Could you donate and deliver a home-cooked dinner?

CONTACT

Deb Cohn | dlittlecohn@gmail.com
Carol Philipps | philipps.carol@gmail.com
Chan Sommers | dcsommers@gmail.com
Judy Von Bergen | judyvonbergen@gmail.com