

Cindy Lovell would like to say thank you to the many helpers who participated in the Pentecost Sunday (May 28) Children's Moment: Greg Hinz, Sara Joy Lovell, James McGregor, Kathy Mohs, Tom Popp, Ben Walsh, and Jeremiah Williams.

The music you heard was based on "One!" by Marvin Hamlisch from the Broadway musical A Chorus Line: original lyrics by Edward Kleban, arranged by Anita Kerr. Here are the revised lyrics by Cindy:

Three! Lord God, Jesus, Spirit... They are called the trinity
One! They are all the same God, equal but unique, see?
Lord God is master of all and God made the earth.
Jesus the son was human and he was birthed.

Then, came the Holy Spirit, helping us feel calm and strong.
Stays with us and guides us so we might not do wrong.
God loves us in three ways as no one else can do.
You know you'll never be lonely with you know who!

Three! Put them all together and you can forget the rest.
Lord, Christ, Spirit's second best to none, so...
Pray! Sing! Give them your devotion.
Do you understand the notion?
Three in One!
