

VOICES Ambassador Job Description

Name: VOICES Ambassador

Summary: VOICES Ambassadors are American Cancer Society (ACS) or American Cancer Society Action Network (ACS CAN) volunteers who are spokespeople in their communities for the VOICES of Black Women study. Ambassadors are pillars of their communities who may be called upon to represent VOICES at events and speaking engagements to drive enrollment. These ambassadors will work and communicate with their local VOICES market team. All ambassadors must complete online training.

Benefits: Though VOICES of Black Women is a national study, it thrives in community. The VOICES Ambassador Community is essential for sharing this initiative on the community level. These volunteers will:

- Gain access to the VOICES of Black Women digital marketing materials
- Receive physical marketing and promotional materials after completing training
- Connect with local ACS employees and programs in their area
- Become part of an initiative to create a better future for Black women for generations to come

Time Requirements: Variable

Age Minimum: 18

Age Max: 70
