

MVD field offices to reopen on limited basis June 1.

SANTA FE—New Mexico Motor Vehicle Division offices will reopen on an appointment-only basis on June 1, Gov. Michelle Lujan Grisham announced Friday. In this first phase of reopening, MVD offices will accept appointments only for transactions that cannot be completed online. On Tuesdays and Wednesdays, only customers 79 and over will be served from 8:00 – 10:00 a.m. in larger offices (a listing of senior- hour locations will be available at mvdonline.com). New Mexicans are strongly encouraged to continue using MVD's online Services at https://eservices.mvd.newmexico.gov/eTapestry/_/ to renew driver's licenses and vehicle registrations and take care of many other transactions from the safety of their homes. Online transactions totaled 91,806 in April 2020, up 84% over April 2019. Examples of transactions that cannot be completed online include license renewals for people 79 years of age and older, first-time Real ID licenses, first-time New Mexico licenses of any kind, title transfers, and VIN inspections. Customers will be able to schedule appointments at <http://www.mvd.newmexico.gov/> or at 888-683-4636.

Information for the Deming MVD will be posted as soon as it becomes available.
