

Black History #WithMe

Interview a family member such as a parent, grandparent, aunt, uncle. Ask them questions and think of how their responses impact you and your family today. Record your interviews and share your stories with us on Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram with the hashtag Black History #WithMe as part of our Black History at Home program.

Here are some questions to get you started:

1. What's your full name, birthdate, and age?
2. What are the names of your parents and siblings?
3. What were your parents like?
4. Where did you grow up? What was it like?
5. What's your earliest memory?
6. What did you want to be when you grew up?
7. Describe your childhood. What did you like to do? What was important to you?
8. Did you enjoy school? What was your favorite subject? Why?
9. Who is/was the most important person in your life? Tell me about him or her.
10. What are the most important life lessons you've learned?
11. Do you remember any great stories or legends about your family?
12. How would you describe your work career? What is/was the best part about it?
13. What do you enjoy most about your life now? Why?
14. Is there a quote, scripture, or saying that is important to you? What is it? Why?
15. What do you want people to remember about you?
