

FROM THE CAUCASUS TO CENTRAL ASIA: THE RICH HISTORY OF PERSIAN-SPEAKING JEWS

3-Part Series
Saturday evenings @ 8pm

February 7 Iranian Jews

February 14 Bukharian & Afghan Jews

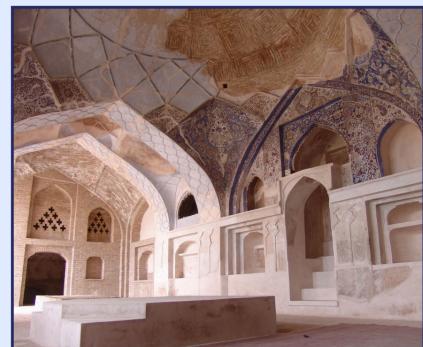

February 21 Kavkazi (Mountain) Jews

Keter Torah Synagogue
5480 Orchard Lake Rd.
West Bloomfield Township, MI 48323

What is the connection between Iranian, Bukharian, Afghan, and Kavkazi Jews? Ahead of Purim, join us to delve into the deeply rooted history and multifaceted culture of Jews of Persian lands—including Iran, Central Asia, and the Caucasus. Embarking on a journey that spans 2700 years, this timely course will explore some of the oldest Jewish communities of the Diaspora and their importance in broader Jewish history.

 Guest Speaker: Ruben Shimonov
National Director of Education,
American Sephardi Federation

Refreshments will be served
RSVP: ketertorahwb@gmail.com, or text: 248-681-3665

Keter Torah Synagogue

American
Sephardi
Federation