FRANKFORT CHAMBER OF COMMERCE/
FRANKFORT FALL FESTIVAL SPECIFICATIONS

GENERAL CONDITIONS

Bids are due on or before June 15, 2026. Bids received after this date will not be considered.

The bidder shall at all times observe and conform to all laws, ordinances, regulations and accepted trade standards and safety laws of the Federal, State, Local and Village governments, which may in any manner affect the preparation of the bid or performance of the contract.

It is expected that a company submitting a proposal will obtain information concerning the conditions at locations that may affect its work. The company shall make its own determination as to conditions and shall assume all risk and responsibility and shall complete the work in and under the conditions it may encounter or create, with no extra cost to the Chamber.

In the event of non-performance of any of the covenants, conditions and agreements contained in this Request for Proposal, the bidding company risks being invited to bid services for the following year.

The Chamber reserves the right to reject any or all proposals and to disregard any informality on the bids and bidding when, in its opinion, the best interest of the Chamber will be served by such action.

No bid will be accepted from or award to any person, firm or corporation that is in arrears or is in default to the Frankfort Chamber of Commerce upon any debt or contract, or that is a defaulter, as a surety or otherwise, upon any obligation to said Chamber, or had failed to perform faithfully any previous contract with the Chamber.

Upon completion and acceptance of said services by the Chamber, it is understood that payment for the project(s) will be made or, as otherwise specified herein, in full by the Chamber no later than 30 days after receipt of invoice.

I hereby agree to indemnify and hold harmless the Village of Frankfort and the Frankfort Chamber of Commerce, and all agents, assigns and employees with regards to any damages and/or causes of action resulting from the negligence and/or willful conduct of the bidder or its agents, assigns, or employees, or as the result of the use of the bidder's products or equipment.
