About Orange County Korean Bar Association (OCKABA)

OCKABA was established in 2005 to foster professional and personal relationships between 1st, 1.5, and 2nd generation Korean-American attorneys through business networking and social events, provide pro bono services aimed at addressing the needs of the local Korean-American community, promote the appointment of Korean-American judges, and facilitate the efforts of Korean-American law students to navigate the transition to licensed practice. OCKABA coordinates a diverse program of business networking events, mentorship opportunities, social mixers, and pro bono clinics. Additional details can be accessed at www.oc-kaba.org.

Support OCKABA and Enhance Your Business Opportunities

OCKABA's Installation Dinner will bring together a broad range of practitioners within the legal community, a group that includes judges, law firm partners, in-house counsel, government attorneys, law school faculty, non-profit attorneys, and solo practitioners.

Demographic statistics compiled as part of the 2015 American Community Survey indicate that 93,453 Korean-Americans live in Orange County, comprising 16 percent of Orange County's total Asian-American population. This growth in numbers has been accompanied an increase in the visibility and influence of the Korean-American community, as well as an increasing demand for legal services. Supporting OCKABA and this signature event via a sponsorship will enhance the profile of your business within the Korean-American community. Sponsors will receive exposure through written and verbal recognition at the Installation Dinner. Sponsors will also be featured in OCKABA's quarterly newsletter, and sponsor logos will be featured prominently on the event logo board which will be on display at the Installation Dinner.
