

BEGINNING/INTERMEDIATE TRAINING ON REPRESENTING IMMIGRATION VICTIMS OF CRIME IN U VISA & VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN ACT (VAWA) APPLICATIONS

PRESENTED BY

The Public Law Center & Chapman Law School

The Aitken Family Protection Clinic at Chapman University Fowler School of Law and the Public Law Center present a three hour CLE training on effectively representing immigrant victims of crime in U Nonimmigrant Visa applications and VAWA petitions. This training will be useful to practitioners and pro bono attorneys with beginning to intermediate-level experience with U Visa and VAWA cases, as well as pro bono attorneys who are interested in taking their first case. The material will encompass recent changes in policy and practice under the Trump Administration and how such shifts should be considered when filing immigrant based petitions.

FACULTY

Professor Julie Marzouk

Expert in victim based immigration petitions,

Co-Director Bette & Wylie Aitken Family Protection Clinic, Dale E. Fowler School of Law at Chapman University

AGENDA

5:30 - 6:00 p.m. U Nonimmigrant requirements for victims of crime including filing for derivatives, indirect victims, and victims of "substantially similar crimes"

6:00 - 6:15 p.m. U Visa certification issues and special considerations in filing U Visas under the Trump Administration

6:15 - 6:45 p.m. Advanced issues in inadmissibility, responding to Request For Evidence, and Denials

6:45 - 7:15 p.m. U Visa Adjustment of Status, Extensions of U Visa Status, and I-929 Follow-along petitions for qualifying family members

7:15 - 7:30 p.m. BREAK

7:30 - 8:15 p.m. VAWA requirements, building a strong evidentiary case, and responding to RFEs

8:15 - 8:30 p.m. VAWA Adjustment of Status and special considerations under the Trump Administration

THURSDAY, 22 FEBRUARY 2018

5:30 P.M. - 8:30 P.M.

CHAPMAN LAW SCHOOL

ONE UNIVERSITY DRIVE, ROOM 237A, ORANGE, CA 92866

RSVP: GRACE LANDA, glanda@publiclawcenter.org

COST: FREE FOR PRACTITIONERS WITH THE COMMITMENT TO HELP IN AT LEAST 1 PLC PRO BONO CASE WITHIN THE NEXT YEAR.

www.publiclawcenter.org