Since 1987, Hunger Solutions New York Oversees NOEP Coordinators (Nutrition Outreach and Education Program) in almost every County throughout New York State and throughout all boroughs of New York City. NOEP's nationally recognized model is one of the largest Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) outreach programs in the nation. SNAP is a federally-funded program that stretches the monthly food budget for those who qualify under program guidelines.

Through NOEP's community-based work, tens of thousands new households apply and receive nutrition assistance every year. NOEP Coordinators help individuals by:

- Help applicants gather documents necessary for, fill out and send in a SNAP application
- Offer translation services, home visits, and in-person or over-the-phone assistance
- Work with local government offices to ensure each application is processed correctly
- Refer households to other nutrition assistance programs and community resources

Pro Action of Steuben and Yates, Inc. is proud to provide Yates County with NOEP Coordinator Ashton Dillon, who can be reached at the Yates County Office for the Aging.
