

Ways Volunteers Can Help at the Secondary Level

Fewer volunteers are used in secondary schools than at the elementary level. However, there are many volunteer opportunities you can become involved in. Below is a list of ways that secondary schools can utilize volunteers:

- Sign-up as a speaker about career related topics and experiences
- Help students on special projects
- Help students with resource materials in the library
- Assist students with various special needs
- Assist in science labs
- Assist in vocational classes
- Accompany students on choral, band, club or athletic trips
- Assist students in art, music, acting, etc.
- Help arrange field trips
- Sponsor school clubs
- Assist in developing school publications
- Assist in putting on student performances
- Help students with homework and make-up assignments
- Help non-English speaking students with vocabulary and conversational skills
- Assist athletic coaches
- Serve as Mentors/Tutors
- Assist in arranging and supervising special school event

These suggestions of volunteer opportunities are only the beginning! Think of other ways that volunteers can help
