

Red Ribbon Week

National Red Ribbon Week is October 23-27th 2017

This year's message is "Your Future is Key, So Stay Drug Free." We will celebrate each day by dressing with a theme, and by donating specialized items for those affected by the recent Hurricanes!

Monday, October 23 - Too Bright for Drugs: wear neon/bright colors - donate toiletry items such as toothbrushes/toothpaste.

Tuesday, October 24 - Too Super to Use Drugs: wear your favorite super hero shirt - donate non-perishable canned or boxed items for hurricane victims.

Wednesday, October 25 – Unify our school while socking it to Drugs: wear an orange shirt for unity day and also wear fun socks (colorful, mismatch, etc.) - bring new pair of socks to donate to the hurricane victims.

Thursday, October 26 - Team Up Against Drugs – Wear your favorite team Jersey or T-shirt.

Friday, October 27 – Be a genius against drugs- wear an appropriate red shirt and blue jeans - donate clothes for the Hurricane victims.

Door Decorating Contest: The teacher and students with the best decorated RED RIBBON WEEK themed door, will be eligible for a special prize and a doughnut party!! Every teacher should use their 1st period class to decorate and participate.
