The North Carolina Fisheries Association is working on relief efforts for victims of Hurricane Laura in the Gulf region.

Doug Cross of Pamlico Packing and Meade Amory are working on accumulating seafood and other items that will be trucked to Amory Seafood in Virginia and Evans Seafood in Washington NC. Thanks to NCFA Board member Ross Butler, a semi from True North Seafood will pick up the items and transport it to Louisiana.

NCFA has been working with United Way of Louisiana and the Gulf Seafood Foundation on this effort.

Plans are to have everything to Amory's and Evan's by Friday to be picked up by True North on Saturday and head to Louisiana.

For questions, call Jerry Schill, 252-361-3015 or Doug Cross 252-636-7559.
