

The Texas Association for Mediators (TAM) is seeking nominations for election to the 2021 TAM Board of Directors, to be announced at our Annual Membership Meeting held during the annual conference which will be held virtually on February 19-20, 2021. All newly elected members begin their service at that point.

Prospective board members must be TAM members in good standing and maintain their membership during the time they serve. Currently, the following positions are open for nominations:

- One At-large director to serve for one-year unexpired term;
- Four At-large directors to serve for three-year terms; and
- Newsletter Editor, Social Media Chair, and 2022 Conference Chairs.

Time Line

- January 15, 2021 – Deadline for all nominations.
- February 1, 2021 - A final ballot will be presented to our membership for a vote.
- February 19, 2021 - The results will be announced at the Annual Membership Meeting.

The TAM board has set the following guidelines for board membership for 2021:

- Minimum of one year as member of TAM at the Full Member level
- Minimum of three years' experience in the conflict resolution field
- Not served on the TAM board during the previous three years
- A commitment to attend Board meetings in person and by phone, to be an active participant on the working board, and demonstrated leadership experience or potential

To nominate yourself or a fellow TAM Member to the board, email the information listed below to TAM Board Nominations Committee Chair and President-Elect, Mark W. Sims at texaslaw@austinmediation.com by January 15, 2021.

Information requested:

1. Name and contact information of the nominee (resume optional);
2. A brief statement outlining why the nominee wants to be on the board and their vision for TAM.

We look forward to reviewing all nominations. TAM is an all-volunteer organization, and our members determine its success. Thank you for your continued support of TAM.

Sincerely,

Mark W. Sims, TAM Board Nominations Committee Chair
