THE YOUTH BEACH RETREAT WAS AN AMAZING ADVENTURE!

Summer has hit and the youth are off and running. The first of June always brings a well earned retreat to the beach designed for learning, rest, eating and whole lot of fun. This trip filled all of the requirements. The weather was wonderful with a few showers here and there. God Time in the evening was inspiring, our youth are amazing and have thoughts that promote and create growth.

We spent a lot of time on the beach, playing corn hole, passing a football, enjoying the sun, sand and water, and Thomas even found a $20.00 bill floating in the ocean. The food was great, followed by God Time and ice cream in the evening. We made a trip to Myrtle Beach to take part in a Pirates' Voyage, and we thoroughly enjoyed it. Our day trip to Southport, by way of the ferry from Fort Fisher, gave us the opportunity to shop a little, but the main purpose was to enjoy a meal at the Provision Company and that we did.

This year's trip was a beautiful trip with great youth, good weather and it closed with wonderful memories.

Until next time Kure Beach, thank you for the many blessings.
