ADVOCATE

Contact Your Elected Officials:

Currently, $14.3 billion of US Aid to Israel is stalled in Congress.

Urge our members of Congress to move quickly to get these much needed funds to Israel and to continue speaking out and standing with our ally as it acts to defeat Hamas. Visit p2a.co/10HUkdv to be connected with your elected officials and send them a message.

2 a Day 4 Israel

CONNECT

Israel Mission:

Beth Jacob is looking into the possibility of an additional delegation from the shul to travel to Israel to show our solidarity and support. This trip would be focused on supporting those most affected by the ongoing war and furthering our shul's connection to Acheinu Bnei Yisrael.

If you are potentially interested in joining, please contact Rabbi Topp.

HOSTAGE SPOTLIGHT- BRING THEM HOME NOW!

Bar Kupershtein - By Ilana Melmed

On International Holocaust Remembrance Day, Michael Kupershtein, 82, Holocaust survivor, was invited to speak at a memorial event and spoke about the similarities between the Nazis and Hamas. His grandson, Bar Kupershtein, 22, was part of the staff at the Supernova rave music festival, working as a security guard and volunteer paramedic for the "Yedidim" organization. He has been missing since Oct. 7th.

Instead of having fun during any holiday, Bar always worked, as he had become the breadwinner and financial support of his family. "He was just an innocent, sweet, ordinary young person, yet he's had a lot of responsibility on his young shoulders," said a family member.

Upon hearing the sirens, his grandmother somehow managed to contact him by phone and he told her he was starting to leave the area. But he did not. He stayed behind to help the wounded.

Survivors of the festival later told the family that when the attack and shooting began, instead of running and escaping from the massacre, Bar stayed behind until the last moment, to help, treat and evacuate the wounded. That's who Bar was. Later, the family saw a graphic video and photographs of Bar lying on the ground with his hands tied behind his back, posted by the terrorists.

Bar is from Holon, and until Oct 7th, had been financially supporting his mother, Julie, his father, Tal, plus four younger siblings. His father, also a Hatzalah volunteer paramedic, was severely injured a few years ago when he rescued a little girl who had been hit by a car. He now remains crippled, bound to a wheelchair. "The family is very dear to my heart," said Eli Beer, founder of United Hatzalah. "Bar was just as giving as his father." It was to earn money for his family, that Bar signed up to work at the music festival.

Friends and family describe Bar as an intelligent, kind and giving person who was the first to help anyone in need. "The kind of person who would stop and help change a person's flat tire, even when he's dressed all in white."

Some survivors of the festival have visited Bar's family and told them they owe their lives to Bar, a selfless young man, treasured for his kindness. He did what he did to save the lives of others and paid with his own freedom.
