Dear Friends,

On May 22, 2025 the Police Emerald Society of Nassau County, Inc will host its Biennial Installation Dinner at the Crest Hollow Country Club in Woodbury, New York.

Our organization is proud to have Janice DelColle as its 2025 Irish person of the year. Janice DelColle is currently a bartender at The Wantagh Inn. Janice immigrated to this country from Ireland in October of 2000 and began her career as a waitress. Janice has always been very supportive towards law enforcement and all first responders. She constantly shows her ability to connect with customers by making them feel as if they were family. Janice never fails to make you leave The Wantagh Inn with a smile and a laugh, all thanks to her Irish wit and her Irish charm.

Our Police Officer of the year goes out to Robert Phaneuf. Officer Phaneuf has worked hard in his 19 years as a Nassau County Police Officer. He is currently assigned to the Criminal intelligence Rapid Response Team. Officer Phaneuf continues to work at keeping our communities safe and currently has been involved in over 1,900 arrests, That's an achievement most officers will never achieve.

In addition, our 2025 President's Award recipient will be Michael Mc Niff, owner of The Irish Poet in Wantagh. Mike has been involved with supporting the Emerald Society for many years. Our society meetings are currently held at The Irish Poet which allows us to embrace our continued connection with Mike.

We are asking that you recognize the efforts of this year's recipients and our organization by purchasing tickets to this event and/or an ad in our Event Souvenir Journal. Journal ads and tickets can be purchased through any of our board members.
