SATURDAY | NOVEMBER 21

TAMPA, FLORIDA

Baseball's Irish roots run deep. Irish immigrants and their sons shaped how the game was played and helped build baseball into America's national pastime. The Irish have played a major role in the game ever since, from amateur ball to college, the minor leagues, and the big leagues.

The Irish American Baseball Hall of Fame exists to preserve and celebrate that history. Each year, the Hall inducts players, coaches, executives, and media personalities who have made an impact on the game and are proud of their Irish heritage.

But recognition is only half the mission. The other half is happening in Ireland, where baseball is taking root for the first time in generations. By celebrating the Irish influence on baseball in America, we're connecting Irish American baseball fans to that shared history, and together we're supporting the growth of the game in Ireland.

When you support the Fall Classic Dinner, you're honoring baseball's history and supporting its future.
