

Family Eucharist

Christmas Eve | December 24, 2022

5:00 PM

Saint Luke's Parish

Darien, Connecticut

Welcome to Saint Luke's!

On this Christmas Eve, it is with great joy that we welcome you to Saint Luke's. If you are seeking a spiritual home, for yourself or your family, we would love for Saint Luke's to be that place.

Saint Luke's is a vibrant congregation—learning, growing, reaching out to serve the world. We offer superb programs for children and youth as we seek to minister to families. If you'd like more information, please fill out a Welcome card found in the pew rack and place it in the offering plate, or give it to an usher or one of the clergy as you leave. We'd love to know more about you, and tell you a little about Saint Luke's. Find us online at www.saintlukesdarien.org.

*Please be aware that we expect a full congregation;
the reserving of pews at today's services cannot be accommodated.*

In an effort to make this a positive worship experience for every member of the family, please note the following:

- Childcare is available for children ages 0-3 years old in the Education Building.
- The Taylor Room, across the cloister and to the right, is a great place to take a quick break or change a diaper.
- Restrooms are located at the bottom of the Narthex stairs and in the Education Building.
- This service is designed for our youngest parishioners. Please feel comfortable to wiggle, giggle, squirm and scream as much as is needed. All are welcome here!

Thank you for joining us for worship and to celebrate the beauty of Christmas Eve here at Saint Luke's.

Merry Christmas!

The Feast of the Nativity of our Lord Jesus Christ

Opening Voluntary

Rector's Welcome

Hymn in Procession

Sung by all, standing.

O come, all ye faithful, joyful and triumphant,
O come ye, O come ye, to Bethlehem;
come, and behold him, born the King of angels;

*O come, let us adore him, O come let us adore him,
O come, let us adore him, Christ, the Lord.*

God from God, Light from Light eternal;
lo! He abhors not the Virgin's womb;
only begotten son of the Father; Refrain

Sing, choirs of angels, sing in exultation, sing, all ye citizens of heaven above;
glory to God, Glory in the highest; Refrain

Yea, Lord, we greet thee, born this happy morning;
Jesus, to thee be glory given:
Word of the Father, now in flesh appearing. Refrain

Text: John Francis Wade (1711-1786); tr. Frederick Oakeley (1802-1880) and others

Music: Adeste fideles, present form of melody att. John Francis Wade (1711-1786); harm. The English Hymnal, 1906

The Word of God

Opening Acclamation

Celebrant Behold, I bring you good news of great joy, which will be for all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David, a Savior, who is Christ the Lord.

People Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
And blessed be God's kingdom, now and forever. Amen.

The Collect for Purity

All Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid:
Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Song of Praise

Sung by all.

Angels we have heard on high,
singing sweetly through the night,
and the mountains in reply
echoing their brave delight.
Gloria in excelsis Deo.

Come to Bethlehem and see him whose birth the angels sing;
come, adore on bended knee
Christ, the Lord, the newborn King.
Gloria in excelsis Deo.

Text: French carol; tr. James Chadwick (1813–1882), alt.

Music: Gloria, French carol; arr. Edward Shippen Barnes (1887–1958)

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, you make us glad by the yearly festival of the birth of your only Son Jesus Christ: Grant that we, who joyfully receive him as our Redeemer, may with sure confidence behold him when he comes to be our Judge; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Please be seated.

The First Lesson | Isaiah 9:2–7

The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who lived in a land of deep darkness—on them light has shined. You have multiplied the nation, you have increased its joy; they rejoice before you as with joy at the harvest, as people exult when dividing plunder. For the yoke of their burden, and the bar across their shoulders, the rod of their oppressor, you have broken as on the day of Midian. For all the boots of the tramping warriors and all the garments rolled in blood shall be burned as fuel for the fire. For a child has been born for us, a son given to us; authority rests upon his shoulders; and he is named Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. His authority shall grow continually, and there shall be endless peace for the throne of David and his kingdom. He will establish and uphold it with justice and with righteousness from this time onward and forevermore. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will do this.

Reader The Word of the Lord
People Thanks be to God.

Gradual Anthem

Sung by the St. Nicholas and St. Cecilia Choirs.

The snow lay on the ground, the star shone bright when Christ our Lord was born on Christmas night.
Venite adoremus Dominum. (Come, let us adore the Lord)

‘Twas gentle Mary maid, daughter pure of holy Anne,
That brought into this world the God made man.
Venite adoremus Dominum.

Saint Joseph, too, was by to tend the child;
to guard him, and protect his mother mild.
Venite adoremus Dominum.

Text: Traditional, 19th cent.

Music: Anglo Irish, arr. Charles Douglas (1867–1944)

Hymn at the Sequence

Sung by all, standing.

O little town of Bethlehem,
How still we see thee lie!
Above thy deep and dreamless sleep
The silent stars go by.
Yet in thy dark streets shineth
The everlasting Light;
The hopes and fears of all the years
Are met in thee tonight.

Text: Phillips Brooks (1835-1893)

Music: St. Louis, Lewis H. Redner (1831-1908)

The Gospel | Luke 2:1-20

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

In those days a decree went out from Emperor Augustus that all the world should be registered. This was the first registration and was taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria. All went to their own towns to be registered. Joseph also went from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was descended from the house and family of David. He went to be registered with Mary, to whom he was engaged and who was expecting a child. While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child. And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn.

In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. Then, an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid; for see—I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord. This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger." And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying, "Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom he favors!"

When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us." So they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the child lying in the manger. When they saw this, they made known what had been told them about this child; and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds told them. But Mary treasured all these words and pondered them in her heart. The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them.

The Sermon

The Reverend Ryan C. Fleenor

The Prayers of the People

Deacon In peace, let us kneel and pray to the Lord.

After the people kneel, the Prayer Leader continues

Leader Father, in this holy night your Son was born among us, and Christians all over the world sing for joy; renew your Church and open our hearts that Christ may find in us a dwelling place prepared for himself.

People Lord, in your mercy,
Hear our prayer.

Leader In this holy night, the angels sang of “Peace on earth and good will among men.” We pray for the leaders of this country and all in authority in the nations of the world, that they may work for peace and promote the well-being of all.

People Lord, in your mercy,
Hear our prayer.

Leader In this holy night, the shepherds found the Christ Child lying in a manger, with Blessed Mary and Joseph; bless our homes and families, and all those we love.

People Lord, in your mercy,
Hear our prayer.

Leader In this holy night, darkness is scattered with the light of Christ’s presence; bring comfort to all who suffer, who grieve, or who are alone.

People Lord, in your mercy,
Hear our prayer.

Leader In this holy night, heaven is come down to earth, and earth is raised to heaven; keep in safety those who have died, especially those whom we love but see no more and those in whose loving memory the church is tonight adorned, and bring us all to the joys of heaven.

People Lord, in your mercy,
Hear our prayer.

The Celebrant concludes the prayers with a collect

People O God, you have caused this holy night to shine with the brightness of the true Light: Grant that we, who have known the mystery of that Light on earth, may also enjoy him perfectly in heaven; where with you and the Holy Spirit he lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting.
Amen.

The Peace Please stand.

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

The Clergy and People may greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Offertory Sentence

Celebrant The glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together.

-Isaiah 40:5

Offertory Anthem

Sung by the St. Nicholas and St. Cecilia Choirs.

Oh, sleep now, holy baby, with your head against my breast;
meanwhile the pangs of my sorrow are soothed and put to rest.

A la ru, a la mè; a la ru, a la mè.

You need not fear King Herod, he will bring no harm to you;
so rest in the arms of your mother who sings you a la ru.

Text: Hispanic folk song; tr. John Donald Robb (1892-1989), alt.

Music: A la ru, Hispanic folk melody; arr. John Donald Robb (1892-1989)

Presentation Hymn

Sung by all, standing.

O bring Him incense, gold, and myrrh,
Come, peasant, king to own Him.
The King of kings salvation brings;
Let loving hearts enthrone Him.

This, this is Christ, the King,
Whom shepherds guard and angels sing:
Haste, haste to bring Him laud,
The Babe, the Son of Mary!

Text: William Chatterton Dix (1837-1898)

Music: Greensleeves, English Melody; harm. Christmas Carols New and Old, 1871, alt.

The Great Thanksgiving | Eucharistic Prayer B

*Celebrant
People*

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

*Celebrant
People*

Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.

*Celebrant
People*

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. Because you gave Jesus Christ, your only Son, to be born for us; who, by the mighty power of the Holy Spirit, was made perfect man of the flesh of the Virgin Mary his mother; so that we might be delivered from the bondage of sin, and receive power to become your children. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who forever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus and Benedictus

Sung by all.

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
 Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Setting: From A Community Mass; Richard Proulx (1937-2010)

The people stand or kneel as the Celebrant continues

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

All

We remember his death,
 We proclaim his resurrection,
 We await his coming in glory;

Celebrant

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with the ever-blessed Virgin Mary, blessed Joseph, Luke, and all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours,
Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All AMEN.

Celebrant And now as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread. A period of silence is kept.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.
People Therefore, let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

The Invitation to Communion

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.

*All baptized Christians are invited to receive Holy Communion, regardless of age or denomination.
Please come forward at the direction of the ushers. If you require a gluten-free wafer, please request one.
If you wish to receive a blessing instead of Communion, please cross your arms over your chest.*

Carol after Communion Sung by all, kneeling.

Silent night, holy night, all is calm,
all is bright round yon virgin mother and child.
Holy infant so tender and mild,
sleep in heavenly peace.
Sleep in heavenly peace.

Silent night, holy night, shepherds quake
at the sight, glories stream from heaven afar, heavenly hosts sing alleluia;
Christ, the Savior, is born!
Christ, the Savior, is born!

Silent night, holy night, Son of God,
Love's pure light radiant beams from thy holy face,
with the dawn of redeeming grace,
Jesus, Lord at thy birth.
Jesus, Lord at thy birth.

Text: Joseph Mohr (1792-1848); tr. John Freeman Young (1820-1885)
Music: Stille Nacht, melody Franz Xaver Gruber (1787-1863); harm. Carl H. Reinecke (1824-1910)

The Postcommunion Prayer

Celebrant
People

Let us pray.
Eternal God, heavenly Father,
you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food
in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace,
and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Christmas Blessing

Celebrant

May Christ, who by his Incarnation gathered into one things earthly and heavenly, fill you with his joy and peace; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be upon you and remain with you always. Amen.

Hymn in Procession

Sung by all, standing.

Hark! the herald angels sing
glory to the newborn King!
Peace on earth and mercy mild,
God and sinners reconciled!
Joyful, all ye nations, rise,
join the triumph of the skies;
with the angelic host proclaim
Christ is born in Bethlehem!

*Hark! the herald angels sing
glory to the newborn King!*

Christ, by highest heaven adored;
Christ, the everlasting Lord;
late in time behold him come,
offspring of the Virgin's womb.
Veiled in flesh the Godhead see;
hail the incarnate Deity.
Pleased as man with man to dwell;
Jesus, our Emmanuel! Refrain

Mild he lays his glory by,
born that we no more may die,
born to raise us from the earth,
born to give us second birth.
Risen with healing in his wings,
light and life to all he brings,
hail, the Sun of Righteousness!
hail, the heaven-born Prince of Peace! Refrain

Text: Charles Wesley (1707-1788), alt.

Music: Mendelssohn, Felix Mendelssohn (1809-1847); adapt. William H. Cummings (1831-1915)

About these Prayers

Saint Luke's is a community committed to prayer. Holding one another's joys, sorrows, and concerns before God in prayer is a spiritual practice at the heart of our life together. We encourage you to pray throughout the week for these members of our parish family.

We invite you to add yourself or others to the Saint Luke's prayer list by submitting a prayer request card or notifying the Parish Office at 203-655-1456 or info@saintlukesdarien.org.

Pastoral Visits

Please notify us if you or a family member is hospitalized and/or in need of a pastoral call or visit. We often have no other way of knowing a visit is needed. Please email a member of the clergy or call the Parish Office.

Sharing Holy Communion

If illness prevents you or a loved one from joining us for services, a priest or a lay eucharistic visitor can share Holy Communion with you at home or in a health care facility. Please contact the Parish Office.

Celebrations

If you would like to ask for prayers for the celebrations in your life or in the life of a loved one, please contact the Parish Office.

Flowers

The Flower Guild adorns the church with flowers and greens thanks to donations given in memory of loved ones or in thanksgiving for special occasions. The names are listed in the service bulletins. If you would like to make a gift of flowers, please contact Lynn Biggart at 203-655-3343 or sevenbiggs@aol.com.

12 Step Groups

Saint Luke's hosts multiple 12 Step Recovery and Support groups, including AA, AlAnon, Alateen, and Fabulous Women of Wednesday. Call the Parish Office for meeting times, or see our online calendar.

Prayer List

(Current as of printing on 12/15/2022.)

For the Church

In our Anglican cycle of prayer, we pray for The Anglican Church of Melanesia.

In our Diocese, we pray for St. Mark's, Bridgewater; Good Shepherd, Bristol/Plainville; St. Paul's, Brookfield; Trinity, Brooklyn. And for soup kitchens and food pantries, and all ministries that feed those who go without.

In our parish cycle of prayer, we give thanks for all who make our worship possible, including musicians, ushers, readers, acolytes, lay assistants, altar guild and flower guild members.

In Thanksgiving

For all those who made 2022 and 2023 financial commitments to support the mission and ministry of Saint Luke's.

For the birth of Grant Matthew Hayes, son of Meredith Koch & Ryan Hayes, and grandson of Chris & Dick Koch.

Those who have requested our prayers

For members and friends of the parish who are sick, sorrowful, or in any kind of trouble: Sheila, Charlie, Caroline, Campbell, Rex, Cody, Molly, Darcy, Laura, Tim, Christina, Roz, Lauren, John, Beth, Brittany, Noel, Liz, and Jessie.

In our Outreach cycle of prayer, we pray for all our Outreach Partners: Community Supper, Person2Person, Pacific House, Future5, Laundry Love, Homefront, and Cuba.

We pray for Miranda Wilson, as she serves with the Young Adult Service Corps in Geneva, Switzerland.

Those who have died

All who have died from COVID-19.

Grow

Love

Serve

Our Vision

A world transformed by the love of Jesus Christ for all people.

Our Mission

Living together as disciples of Christ, we seek to:

Grow personally in faith,
acknowledging our imperfection and need of grace;

Build an accepting & transforming community,
extending God's unconditional welcome to all;

Work alongside our neighbors,
forming partnerships to serve the world.

Let it begin with me.

Our Invitation

Grow in love of God.

Love your neighbor as yourself.

Serve the world in Christ's name.
