Gavilan College Theater Presents Spring Production: “The Imaginary Invalid”

GILROY, CA – The Gavilan College Theater Program is proud to present their Spring production and original adaptation of The Imaginary Invalid on May 13, 14, 20, 21 @ 8:00 PM, and 2 pm on May 21. This play highlights the comedic genius of Molière. The production juxtaposes period costumes and settings with modern situational dialogue and 1980’s music, making it more relevant and fun for modern audiences.

The Gavilan College Theater Director, John Lawton Haehl, shared:

“Molière was adept at creating relatable characters and situations in which we can see ourselves and laugh at their antics onstage. Our protagonist Argon learns an important lesson – that laughter, and the love of your family and friends, is the best medicine of all!”

Tickets are $20 for adults and $12 for students & seniors. Tickets can be purchased at <https://bit.ly/TheaterMay13>, the Gavilan College Bookstore, BookSmart in Morgan Hill, and the Gavilan Theater Box Office before showtimes. Gavilan strongly recommends attendees be vaccinated. Masks are required indoors. These requirements are subject to change based on current college guidelines.

The Gavilan College Theater is located at the Gilroy Main Campus at 5055 Santa Teresa Blvd., 95020.
