

Join Us for the 2025 Excellence in Animal Science Banquet!

The Tarleton State University Department of Animal Science invites all alumni, friends, and families to the Excellence in Animal Science Banquet on April 25, 2025, at 5:30 p.m. in the Equine Center. This special evening celebrates the achievements of our students, faculty, and staff while bringing together the Tarleton Animal Science community.

Guests will enjoy a night of recognition, great food, and fellowship with fellow supporters of animal agriculture. The banquet highlights student accomplishments, scholarship recipients, and the outstanding contributions of those who make our program exceptional.

Join us as we honor excellence in animal science and reconnect with friends, faculty, and industry professionals. Secure your spot today by reserving tickets at the following link: Excellence in Animal Science Banquet Tickets.

We look forward to celebrating with you!
