

'A Voice Through the Door Calling You'

a workshop sponsored by
The Center for Biography and Social Art

February 18,19, 2017 9 - 5 pm

Waldorf School of San Diego, Colina Campus
4135 54th Place S.D., 92015

What is your life telling you? Asking of you?

Sometimes you hear a voice through the door calling you, as fish out of water hear the waves, or a hunting falcon hears the drum's Come back. Come back.

This turning toward what you deeply love saves you. Read the book of your life, which has been given you.

A voice comes to your soul saying,

Lift your foot. Cross over.

Move into emptiness of question and answer and question.

Rumi

Life does not progress in a straight line toward a goal – there are a lot of twists and turns, points where something new or surprising enters. We will spend the days exploring these Turning Points to see what we can see, hear what we can hear, and sense what we can sense.

There are also certain viewpoints along the journey that give us a glimpse of what our life is about and where our life is taking us. Moon Nodes, which come every 18 years 7 months, are some of these. Too young for more than one Moon Node? Then turn your gaze to another Turning Point.

Through images, artistic exercises and conversation we will share what we see as we read the book of our life.

Perhaps you will find something new or surprising and open to a deeper appreciation for your own life.

with Patricia Rubano, Director of the Biography and Social Art Program and Joseph Rubano, faculty member B&SA and Biographical Counselor

Cost: sliding scale $150-$200 (all materials provided)

Registration by Feb 11*: josrubano@hotmail.com or call us at 760-754-1148

*course will be cancelled if insufficient enrollment by Feb.11