

August 2021 Newsletter

Thank you, Clinton, Iowa, for a July to remember! Last month was amazing, with the 4th of July festival, live music, the Showboat moving back inside, the Lumberkings battling up wins, and of course the last two weekends full of RAGBRAI activities. Thank you to every single person who volunteered, cheered, supported, bought t-shirts, and rearranged their plans to accommodate the 20,000 people who came to visit us. Our goal as a RAGBRAI committee was to showcase our amazing city and entice people to come back for more. Thank you for being part of that!

As the summer begins to wind down, don't miss out on the activities still available. Camanche Days, the Showboat's newest offering "Constellations", the Body Mind Spirit Expo on the 21st, and live music at Wide River Winery, Farmer's Market, Finally Friday, and Music on the Avenue. Plus the American Countess will be here on August 25th and we're going to need volunteers for that.

Also, plan ahead for fall! Rummaging Along the River is a new event coming the weekend of September 10-12, along with Hotel California at the Wild Rose and the half marathon on Sunday. So many good things to be part of!
