Introduction

After Pentecost, the Apostle Peter stood up to preach the first Christian sermon to all those who were witnesses of the event. This is one of the best sermons that has ever been preached. While the content was great, there is more here than just a sermon; there is also a call for all of us, as Spirit-filled messengers, to be prepared as we seek to share the good news in the ways that God has uniquely called us.

Notes

Questions to Ponder

1. What were the key issues that Peter addressed in his sermon?
2. What are key truths found in this sermon that should motivate us to evangelism?
3. How does the presence of the Holy Spirit play a role in our witness?
4. How did Peter contextualize the message to his audience? Why is this important?
5. Why would Peter have been so convicted of this message? In what ways might we need to shift our lives so that we can live out a similar conviction?
6. What has the cross achieved for us?
