

Indigenous Cultural Awareness

New enhanced interactive session

Time: 8:30 AM SHARP - 4:30 PM

September 12, 2024

October 24, 2024

Giigewigamig Healing Centre

Lunch: Provided Soup & Sandwiches

Registration:

Interlake-Eastern RHA Employees

Free

Non-Interlake-Eastern RHA employees

$100.00

WHO SHOULD ATTEND:

This 1 day session will be of interest to all employees

WHAT WILL BE COVERED:

This workshop introduces a basic knowledge of the world views, spiritual and cultural values of Indigenous peoples, highlights historical and contemporary issues that influence Indigenous peoples, and honors the rich diversities within Indigenous communities.

As a result of attending this workshop participants will:

- Increase awareness and understanding of Indigenous cultures in a health care setting
- Increase ability to provide culturally competent and proficient care
- Acquire new knowledge/tools to build a culturally respectful workplace

An MCSW approved Social Work with Indigenous Peoples workshop*

Giigewigamig Healing Centre

September 12, 2024

October 24, 2024

8:30 Sharp —4:30

For More Information:

Lori Ann Buors

Ph: 204-280-1279/

204-646-2504 Ext 8

or

Robert Maytwayashing

Ph: 204-280-0268

- Manager approval is required prior to registering for a course. Submitting an online registration indicates manager approval has been provided to employee.
- Registrations online; log into the LMS to register for this session. Leave a ph# and email address.
- Confirmation of enrollment will be sent to your IERHA email.
- If time off is required, complete the Request for Time Off form and submit as per the established process.
- Please notify Lori Ann Buors of any food allergies at time of registration.
- Minimum 10 people, maximum 10 people per session.
- Sessions without sufficient enrollment will be cancelled.
- Once registered, your seat is confirmed. If you need to cancel, a min of 48 hrs. notice prior to the scheduled session is required contact Lori at (204)280-1279 or lbuors@ierha.ca.