

TED'S GUIDE TO

ROPS

ESSENTIAL PRACTICES DEFINED BY ACCREDITATION CANADA
ALL STAFF MUST KNOW THESE:

CATEGORIES

REQUIRED ORGANIZATIONAL PRACTICES OR “MUST DO’S”

COMMUNICATION

Improve the efficiency and coordination of communications among care and service providers, and deliver safer care and services

Client identification

List of abbreviations, symbols, and dose designations not to use

Maintaining an accurate list of medications during care transitions

Safe Surgery checklist

Information transfer at care transitions

USE OF MEDICATIONS

Ensuring safe use of high-risk medications

Antimicrobial Stewardship

Managing High-Alert Medications

Infusion Pump Safety

Limiting High-Concentration and High-Dose Opioid Medications

INFECTION PREVENTION AND CONTROL

Reducing the risk of health care associated infections and their impact across the continuum of care and services.

Cleaning and low-level disinfection of medical equipment

Improving Hand Hygiene Practice

Infection rates

Reprocessing

RISK ASSESSMENT

Identifying safety risks that are inherent in the client population

Preventing falls and Reducing injuries from Falls

Optimizing Skin integrity

Suicide Prevention Program

Venous Thrombosis (VTE) Prevention

Interlake-Eastern
Regional Health Authority

ACCREDITATION
CANADA